Person who submitted nomination

Dear Leslie

My name is Linda Ray and I am writing to submit Francine Dobson as the 2014 Sister Circle Everyday Shero.

Francine is a prenominal woman who is a nurse at Johns Hopkins. She also serves as a den mother for a local Boy Scout troop. Francine is the first person to volunteer for anything when we need something done.

Ten years ago, Francine's husband Joe died in a car accident leaving her to raise seven children alone. Although it was difficult Francine finished her nursing degree and secured employment so she could provide for her family. If that wasn't enough, Francine out of the goodness of her heart took in two foster children, increasing her family size to 10.

Then on June 22, 2007 Francine received devastating news that she had terminal breast cancer. She was told that she had less than a year to live. Determined to prove the doctors wrong, Francine fought cancer and won. She has been cancer free for 6 years and counting. Like everything else, she faced her trial with courage and strength. I've never met anyone like this lady and this is why I'm nominating her for the Everyday Shero award.

Sincerely,

Linda Ray
